ABOUT CLASSROOM CHAMPIONS

Founded in 2011 in Calgary, Classroom Champions has since reached over 5 million students in thousands of schools across North America. Over 250 Olympic, Paralympic and professional Athlete Mentors have volunteered to mentor students on critical skills to thrive in the classroom and beyond. Specifically across Canada, Classroom Champions has engaged over 30 Indigenous communities, pairing them with a powerful Indigenous Olympic or Paralympic Athlete Mentor to teach a customized curriculum tied to Indigenous Ways of Knowing.

Through its mentors, Classroom Champions helps develop social and emotional growth mindsets in kids, building their citizenship and leadership skills, digital literacy and encouraging academic achievement. Students who participate in Classroom Champions see improved grades, attendance and aspiration for their future.

ABOUT CONCERT FOR CLASSROOMS
